

Let's Practice!

Mark tells Adam the kinds of questions an employer should not ask.

Instructions: Read the sentences and select all the Passive verb forms.

1. Jobs are being advertised everywhere.
2. People are being recruited.
3. A lot of the people I train have been given jobs because they focus on that.
4. I can't believe these questions are still being asked.
5. It's hard to believe interviewees are being put in a situation where they have to talk about their religious views.
6. I know people who have been asked if they think a woman can do a particular job effectively.

Let's Practice!

Mark and Adam discuss interviews.

Instructions: Match the words from Column A to the words from Column B.

COLUMN A

1. What you need to
2. The thing I need the most now
3. The most important thing to remember in
4. What I have problems with is
5. One thing I wasn't aware

COLUMN B

- a. do now is chill.
- b. of is that there are illegal interview questions.
- c. some of the questions they ask.
- d. is to practice some mock interview questions.
- e. an interview is to let them know what you have to offer.